

Viventor Affiliate Program General Terms and Conditions

1. Viventor Affiliate Program, available and active from 12.12.2017, shall be operated subject to these terms and conditions. Viventor maintains the right of unilaterally altering the terms and conditions of Affiliate Program at any time, without mandatory prior notice.
2. Any natural person that has reached the age of 18, as well as any registered legal person is eligible to apply to become an affiliate with Viventor (further – Affiliate). Viventor reviews every application on individual basis, and maintains rights to approve or reject an applicant to become an Affiliate in line with these terms and conditions, or due to any other reasons undisclosed in these terms and conditions.
3. Upon approval, the Affiliate shall receive a unique URL and digital assets from Viventor, along with the permission to promote Viventor by using its provided materials across all confirmed Affiliate's channels.
Affiliate is prohibited to alter the URL and/or digital assets and other material provided by Viventor, unless a written consent from Viventor for such action has been received. Viventor remains the sole proprietary of the provided digital assets and other materials at all times – the Affiliate can only use them as long as it remains Affiliate of Viventor.
4. All channels (forums, blogs and other websites, applications, YouTube and other video channels etc.) intended for promoting Viventor by Affiliate have to be confirmed and approved by Viventor prior to publication of any material or promotion.
Usage of channels that have not been confirmed by Viventor is strictly prohibited.
5. The terms and conditions for Affiliate rewards shall be agreed between the Affiliate and Viventor, and attached to the General Terms and Conditions as an appendix, after an Affiliate has received the approval from Viventor.
Likewise, method and frequency of payments shall be agreed upon individually.
6. For all communication purposes, Affiliates shall address all inquiries to affiliates@viventor.com
